Subject: Recognition for Professor Kurt Kemp Date: 5/13/20

Whereas: Professor Kurt Kemp is a Spanish professor in the Foreign Languages department. When it comes to keeping students on track and being a widely available resource to aid in student learning, Professor Kemp stands out as one of the most diligent educators that teaches at Mt. SAC. He is personable, friendly, and exhibits immense compassion for the subject he teaches. He ensures that all students are participating in lecture and comprehending the various levels of the Spanish language to the best of his ability, despite remote instruction being implemented.

Whereas: Professor Kemp once served as an advisor for the Mt. SAC I.D.E.A.S. club on campus to which he spent a monumental amount of time getting each and every member involved who joined I.D.E.A.S. He integrates a multitude of campus presentations into his class time, such as inviting the Writing Center and Scholarship department staff to present to all of his classes each semester. Professor Kemp not only introduces his students to free, available resources such as from the Foreign Language Department, Honors Program, and general news and info but he also exposes his students to campus-wide activities and student life events such as Join-A-Club and Mountie Fresh Food Pantries. He also takes his classes on a campus tour at the start of each semester to get new and returning students affiliated with a plethora of Mt. SAC resources and general knowledge.

Whereas: Professor Kemp devotes a large portion as his role as a professor to the values that the Associated Students abide by. He encourages student involvement, awareness, and engagement elegantly with his distinct style of teaching. Professor Kemp going the extra mile in a number of different ways demonstrates his dedication not only as a professor, but a mentor and friend.

Therefore: Be it resolved, that the A.S. Senate, the A.S. Executive Board, and the A.S. President approve the Recognition for Professor Kurt Kemp.
